Solvents in artistic colours

Why is the role of solvents essential?

If you paint in oils, you will need solvents to thin your paints and mediums. You will also need solvents to clean your brushes and palette. Using specific artists' White Spirit makes a leaner mixture with the colour and evaporates quickly. It can also be used to clean your brushes and to create your own painting mediums as well as remove varnishes in preparation for re-varnishing. Low-odour solvent white spirit that has been refined to eliminate toxic aromatic compounds.
