

Training Course

(preceded by the Training Course "An introduction to the solvents industry" on 18 September)

Solvents and their applications

A one-day course designed to offer an insight into the fascinating uses of solvents in our everyday lives

Who should attend?

This course is designed to support the previous 'Introduction to the Solvents Industry' course and is aimed at anyone within the solvents industry who would like to acquire a greater understanding of where solvents are used in the manufacture of everyday items.

18 September 2025

From 10:00 am to 4:00 pm

Cefic office (Brussels | Belgium)

Fee

The training is free of charge for ESIG members. However for no-shows, an invoice of 250€ per session will be sent to those ones members to cover among others the organisation costs, renting of the meeting room, lunches, etc...

For non-ESIG members, a contribution of 250€ per session will be asked.

REGISTER NOW ONLINE HERE
<https://www.esig.org/training/>

Do you want to expand your knowledge of solvents and their uses ... this is the place to be!

Course content

- Re-cap of 'Introduction to the Solvents industry' course
- What is a solvent?
- How are solvents made?
- Solvents and their key characteristics
- Solvents applications by industry
- Interactive session

Even if you haven't previously attended the 'Introduction to the Solvents Industry' course, it is a must attend event for anyone looking to expand their knowledge of the wonderful world of solvents and their uses.

Number of seats are limited, registrations will be taken into account on a first-register basis and final confirmation and details will be sent once payment, if applicable, has been received at our ends.

REGISTER NOW!

For more information, please contact
Hélène Colbach, ESIG
Tel: +32 497 50 00 67 — hco@cefic.be